

MERCATO by JEAN-GEORGES

Mercato, a vibrant Italian restaurant from celebrated three Michelin star chef Jean-Georges Vongerichten and Three on the Bund, is one of the most popular restaurants and food lovers' favorite choice on the Shanghai dining scene.

Mercato is passionately committed to providing guests with a pure and refreshing dining experience. The best Italian cooking is noted for the simple, yet elegant preparation of quality ingredients. Mercato embraces this philosophy by combining the finest Italian products with the freshest local bounty to create a naturally vibrant culinary experience unlike any other.

The seasonally inspired menu that reflects Jean-Georges' signature flair and talent for balancing flavors and textures. Highlights include amazing crudos, artisanal cheeses, incredible seafood salads, house-made pastas, and rustic specialties such as whole roasted snapper and crispy beef short ribs. All the dishes are presented family style, allowing guests to sample a little bit of everything and enjoy the experience of sharing.

A central feature of the restaurant is the stunning Pizza Lounge which is illuminated by the glow of an Italian wood burning oven. All of Mercato's pizzas start with a special dough, made daily in-house with the finest Italian semolina flour. This unique dough is incredibly flavorful and makes for a wonderfully light and chewy crust. The pizza is then covered with bright and savory toppings, and roasted in the wood burning oven which imparts a beautiful crackling texture and satisfying char. A seat at the Pizza Lounge offers guests a full sensory experience that will not soon be forgotten.

The Mercato Bar also features a completely original selection of cocktails made with the finest Italian spirits, freshly muddled fruits and aromatics. Try the savory and spicy Sicilian Margarita, – silver tequila, basil, chili, and lime, the subtly sweet Almafai Sunset – gin, lemon, Lillet, Campari, and Marachino liqueur, or a fresh and bubbly Prosecco Infusion bursting with fresh seasonal fruits. A diverse and fascinating array of Italian, old and new world wines are available as well, making the Mercato Bar the perfect spot to enjoy a pre-dinner cocktail or late night drink.

Mercato's decidedly simple and understated approach represents a refreshing face to Shanghai's dining scene. The relaxed sophistication, addictive cuisine, and friendly, thoroughly unpretentious service paints a picture of Italian life as it should be experienced in its purest form.

The Design

The gorgeous space created by Neri&Hu, bridges the organic and natural with elegance and emotive modernity. The experience begins from the moment guests enter Mercato's stylishly rustic surroundings. Reclaimed wood and warm leather tones serve as a gentle complement to the exposed steel, iron and glass to create an atmosphere that is polished yet warm and inviting. Much of the environmentally conscious décor includes found, salvaged, and green building materials such as old blackboard, antique mirror and energy-saving light bulbs. The inspired design imparts a sensual feeling of comfort and lightness that redefines the idea of "farm chic".

Each table in the spacious 180 seat dining room boasts stunning views of the Bund and Shanghai skyline. The open and airy space allows guests to become immersed in the experience as the aromas, flavors and textures of the sensual cuisine merge with the soulful music, and soft luminous lighting. A meal at Mercato is an extraordinary experience that is sure to transport you to a place of pure enjoyment and indulgence.
